Introduction:

The initiative for the Ateltrainer Universal International Foundation, is based on the manuscript of the "New World". Union of Scientific Medicine and Universal Medicine (Ancestral Healing).

During the current period of the great change that humanity is already beginning to "notice", and that I already communicated in 2016 through the Universal Message, hiring for the Foundation will be done according to the labor laws of each country where the Transcendental Centers and Clinics are located, until they can adapt to the big shift reflected in the manuscript of the New World (Union of all people of the planet for a common destiny).

The present initiative aims to anticipate preparations and be ready to assemble the operational teams that I will detail below in record time, as soon as we obtain the necessary resources through the sale of books and donations.
All in order to help people become free and heal on a global scale, as we have been doing so far on a micro scale in Spain. Contributing to our wonderful Planet and her ecosystems to recover the balance between all species.

The strength of the future Transcendental Clinics lies in the total union between the indispensable Scientific Medicine and the Universal Medicine that I prefer to call Ancestral Healing. Both medicines together will achieve 100% of healing effectiveness.
The main objective of the transcendental ancestral healing hospitals and clinics is to help children and adults alike who have been diagnosed with irreversible illnesses, such as cerebral palsy, blindness, are in recovery from tumour removal, cancer, etc.
No one medicine is better than the other, but together, away from egos and attachments, they will constitute the best medicine of all times to obtain 100% healing effectiveness, once patients are ready to transcend.
Ancestral Healing becomes the energetic surgery that I explain in my fourth book "Transcendental Love, Ancestral Healing" and that many people have already been healed with. Read some experiences.

People who have already met me in person, who have been healed and liberated through a healing retreat or an ancestral treatment, will understand my words more easily, and many of them will remember the experience of the quartz stones, which keeps them united with the "Existence". Some real stories.

People, unburdened by existential uncertainty, living in a just, free, and equitable global society, will find the joy of living life to the fullest. The mind and nervous system will relax and the immune system will function at 100% capacity, which will drastically reduce the current number of diseases and disorders, such as cancer, diabetes, allergies, asthma, anxiety, depressions, etc.

Words of the Founder:

I have spent many years isolated from society, in the silence of the small valley of Hortunas, Spain. Far away from all religions and worldly beliefs.

I have build with my own hands the first AtelTrainer Transcendental Ancestral Healing Center; and with the help of Massiel and Chantal on weekends. Actually they are my only connections to society.

In my 60s, after having self-healed from my diagnosed generalized anxiety, from my asthma and allergies, having improved my diopters, after having written dozens of author's notes and five books, my only ambition and raison d'être is,

- to see the blind child be able to contemplate the sunset on the new horizon.
- to see the child rise from their wheelchair to run in the valleys of a united and joyful humanity.
- to see how people of pure intentions walk hand in hand, smiling and free.
- to see wild animals recover their habitats and live in peace.
- to see how the river waters flow crystal-clear again.
- to see how seas and oceans are once again a healthy habitat for marine life.
- to see how adaptive diseases have disappeared.
- to see how existential fears have vanished from Earth.
- to see how the collective consciousness got so high that humankind lives in union among all beings.

The AtelTrainer Foundation is the materialization of the good intentions and dissemination of the universal knowledge that belongs to all of us.

The AtelTrainer Foundation is the Foundation of all of you and for all of you.

If my words awaken in you a sincere smile and hope, I invite you to send us your job application.

Thank you and see you soon!

Transcendental Love Hug,
